

HELP WANTED: Steltronic Automatic Scoring Systems

Steltronic is a leading company in the Automatic Scoring Division of the bowling business worldwide. Steltronic deploys Windows PC and Windows server systems, along with specialized electronics for bowling centers, and is looking for a technician for the support of our products.

Hands on training for Steltronic Automatic Scoring specific products and the repair of such electronics will be provided. Knowledge of how automatic scoring systems in bowling centers is a plus, but not necessary.

DUTIES:

Responsible for the electronic exchange replacement parts of customers who currently own Steltronic automatic scoring, small package shipping/receiving and truck freight pallet shipping/receiving along with inventory management. Computer skills are necessary along with knowledge of Microsoft software, along with technical knowledge of how a PC computer is built and software upgraded.

REQUIREMENTS:

A strong knowledge of the bowling game and bowling operations in the bowling center is a benefit, however not mandatory. Basic knowledge of a volt-ohm meter, wiring diagrams, wire crimping tools, and soldering of electrical components are beneficial to the applicant.

BENEFITS:

The salary for this position is very much open and completely based upon experience. Employment includes vacation days along with standard holidays. Weekly hours are Monday – Friday, 8AM-5PM, weekends are not required.

APPLICANTS:

Send your resume and salary requirements to:

Steltronic North America, Inc
4600 Arrow Highway
Montclair, CA. 91773

E-Mail: service.usa@steltronicusa.com